This Is Her! From Zadig & Voltaire, it's a perfume that offers a unique composition based on rose petals and cream. This set includes the Eau De Parfum 50ml which expresses the restorative and at the same time feminine side of every woman with a dose of rock mood.

The accompanying Body Lotion 50ml offers deep hydration and leaves the skin soft as if it had been cleansed while it diffuses the notes of the fragrance for a longer duration. The contrast between the sweetness of the vanilla and the intensity of the sandal creates an effect that is both intimate and special. The minimalist white bottle with the characteristic "broken" edges contradicts the brand's philosophy of beauty that doesn't need to be perfect to be impressive.

CHOPARD MENS - TABACCO MALAKI

EDP 80ML

R1437.39

CORPORATE SAVING	SELLING PRICE
R1317.61	R2755

Chopard's Malaki collection blends Eastern and Western olfactory traditions to create multifaceted, unique expressions that capture the essence of this fusion.

Tobacco Malaki is an immersion into the Eastern olfactory heritage. This elegant and potent new eau de parfum pays homage to the rich aromas of the tobacco leaf. In an intense and captivating olfactory fusion of gourmand warmth and mysterious smoky notes, it asserts a new masculine sensuality.

The eau de parfum opens with a zesty bergamot that electrifies the warm, spicy red gold accord – a sumptuous saffron invigorated by the potency of ambery notes. Amplified by a duo of Atlas cedarwood essence and an oud accord, the tobacco accord reveals its gourmand, aromatic facets at the heart. The woody base – at once comforting and deep – intensely extends the trail through the warm combination of Indonesian patchouli and guaiac wood enhanced by ambery cistus labdanum absolute.

Tobacco Malaki is an invitation to a sensory, fragrant journey deep into an Eastern city.

Man in Black Eau de Parfum embodies the radiant energy, hypnotic movement and primal intensity of Fire. From the first bright spark to the smoldering embers, this charismatic fragrance captures the untamed power of a flame, bold yet mysterious.

The elemental force is part of a deeper inspiration that unites the entire Bvlgari Man collection. At its heart lies the Circle of Nature: a visual and narrative journey through the geometry of nature, capturing the eternal essence of the elements. For Bvlgari Man, the Circle of Nature holds profound meaning. More than just a shape, it is a force that governs all life, the eternal essence of nature, timeless and ever flowing. The circular symbolism also echoes the refillable design of the Bvlgari Man flacon and the Bvlgari Bvlgari engravings on the cap, reinforcing a connection to nature and timeless craftsmanship.

The Bvlgari Man flacon reflects the Maison's unmistakable style, where the geometric precision of Roman architecture meets the bold modernity of Italian design. With its clean lines, structured silhouette, and refined finish, it embodies both audacity and elegance. Moreover, the matte black of Man in Black evokes lava stone polished by Fire.

Beyond design, the packaging also encompasses the use of sustainable materials. By reducing material usage and transitioning to beetroot-based ethanol, we achieve at least a 16% reduction in CO emissions. Overall, the newly designed Bvlgari Man in Black flacon features 34% PCR (post-consumer recycled) materials, including 40% recycled glass and 28% recycled plastic. To enhance usability, the new packaging weighs 23% less and features a removable cap that protects the atomizer and reveals a circular aluminum plate engraved with the Bvlgari Bvlgari logotype.

Reinforcing its commitment to making the flacon last longer, the collection embraces a fully refillable design. Each fragrance in the collection is offered in a dedicated 200ml refill, compatible with all flacon sizes—60ml, 100ml, and 150ml.
